

Ellen Galinsky's Nationally Acclaimed Program for Child Care and Early Learning Professionals, Mind in the Making, Now Offered in Columbus!

The Mind in the Making training is now being offered here in central Ohio by Action for Children for early childhood professionals. This is a cutting-edge training program that puts research about how children learn into action. In other words, it “translates” the research language of neuroscience, psychology, child development and education into practical ways of working with children.

What:

Mind in the Making, a set of 12 learning modules, focuses on specific areas of child development and learning. The modules will be facilitated by Action for Children staff using demonstrations and hands-on activities.

When and Where:

January 23 through April 9, 2012

Mondays from 1:00pm - 3:30pm

Action for Children

78 Jefferson Avenue

Columbus, OH 43215

(Session #SS10010968)

Cost: $210.00 for the 12-module session.

Scholarships: Scholarships are available for a limited number of participants; please contact Dana Wright at 224-0222 Ext.160 to see if you qualify.

Registration: Online at Ohio Professional Development Network (<http://www.opdn.org>)

(When you register for the first module, you will be registered automatically for all 12.)

Note: All 12 modules must be taken to receive your certificate of completion. However, in-service credit will be provided at the end of each module.

This Mind in the Making training is Step Up to Quality approved and Ohio Department of Education (ODE) approved. IACET CEU's are also available.

Action for Children

THE SOURCE
For Child Care and Early Learning Services